What to Expect

You will be joining other handbell choirs – just like yours – to ring music together! In a mass ringing festival, someone will be playing any parts your choir might be missing. "Orphan" ringers welcome!

We strive to make our festival a positive experience for all ringers regardless of ringing experience. It's great if you can bring your whole handbell choir, but if you can only get a few ringers together, that's okay, too.
